MASQUERADE

Cléa Dieudonné

That morning, the frog wakes up on her lily pad. She stretches, opens her mouth to yawn and... ROOAARR! She roars like a lion! She hops away to show the dog. But when he hears the terrifying sound, he shivers with fright, opens his mouth to yelp and... BAAAA! He bleats like a sheep! And so on... The horse meows like a cat, the owl buzzes like a bee, the wolf moos like a cow... All the animals rush to find the witch, it's all her fault. She wanted to replace her quavering voice with the cooing of a dove, but instead she messed up all the animal sounds. A pop-up with 8 3D animals, that can also serve as masks by looking through the two holes in the book.

Myriorama is a game for children, invented in the 19th century, consisting in creating as many pictures as possible with cards that can all be pieced together in lots of different orders. In A Crazy Day, Anne-Hélène Dubray borrows this concept of a storytelling game, including 14 cards in a pretty drawer box, with 87 178 291 200 possibilities, featuring all kinds of animals, vehicles and characters in action - a family having a picnic, children playing in a fountain, a golf player, a woman on a unicycle... A little fold-out book is also included, with an example of a story created by piecing several of the images together. An original and inviting book-game to assemble scenes like a puzzle and invent stories.

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a park scene, divided into six panels. The top row features a pink castle with blue roofs and yellow lightning bolts, a purple airplane flying a banner that reads "Je t'aime", and a red factory with yellow smokestacks. The bottom row shows a man in a red shirt fishing, a woman in a yellow shirt taking a photo, a man in a yellow shirt golfing, a sailboat with a red sail, a woman in a blue shirt walking, and a man in a blue shirt working on a yellow and blue striped object. In the center, a man in a white astronaut suit stands next to a small white dog with a blue and red pattern. The background includes a blue river, a green bridge, a yellow path, and various trees and clouds.

FAMILY HOLIDAYS

Yohan Colombié-Vivès

It's the beginning of the winter holidays, and all of Lucas' problems. When he steps off the train, he loses his family in the crowded station. And so, begins a game to find everyone - grandpa on the ski slopes, daddy in the cabin, mummy in the hot springs, little brother exploring a cave, grandma by the frozen lake... They all find each other at last, but oh no! Grandpa has lost a ski, daddy his backpack, mummy her hat, little brother his robot... Quick, go back to the beginning and find everything that is missing. A clever Seek & Find book set in the mountains, to read twice - first to find the characters, and then the objects they lost... Family Holidays is also a beautiful and fun picture book, with a real story!

UPSIDE DOWN OWL

Julien Hirsinger, Constance Verluca
& Charline Collette

What is that little white dot on a black background? An owl sleeping... Because owls sleep during the day and wake up at night. They are nocturnal animals. Imagine how different that must be! Instead of saying "Good morning" when they wake up, they say "Good night, did you sleep well?". Instead of sunglasses, they wear moon-glasses, and most of all, they don't know about different colours... But that afternoon (I mean, after-midnight), the owl discovers lots of colours at sunrise. A funny text, and a very graphic picture book, illustrated with gouache, exploring strong themes - colours, and day and night.

LOUSY WEATHER FOR UNICORNS

Mickaël El Fathi & Charlotte Molas

The incredible story of the last unicorn. Captured by a hunter in Siberia, she is exchanged with sailors who use it to harpoon whales. Then an aristocrat adopts her to use it for old-fashioned duels as a spear, before offering her to an athlete whom breaks all records of pole vault with her. Passing that way from hand to hand, she serves as a master key to a burglar, makes the glory of a circus with the number of the throwing unicorn, serves as a coat rack, lightning rod or jackhammer. Fortunately, she ends up crossing a person's road who brings her back to the doors of the taiga, where she disappears, free and happy.

HOME SWEET HOME

Miguel Tanco & Miguel Pang

“Getting used to life in the city wasn’t easy at first; the noise, the traffic, the people running around... But there’s actually always something fun to do here. Nobody looks at you strangely, it doesn’t matter what you look like. I enjoy wandering around the flea market, reading an old book at the library or playing with the squirrels in the park. I couldn’t live anywhere else now. This has become my home...” An ode to city life, illustrated entirely in gouache, told by a little narrator who is not who you think...

PARTY ANIMALS

Cléa Dieudonné

Today it's the Hoopoe's birthday and all the animals have come together to get ready for a big party. The gorilla, the cow, the bear, the camel, the crocodile, the giraffe, the boa constrictor, the rhino, the albatross, the kangaroo, the tapir, the panda, the tortoise, the wolf and the penguin, (and that's just the beginning!) are all there, piled one on top of the other. All together they make a hilarious, absurd and unbelievable Noah's Ark type pyramid. A spectacular game-come-book (once opened it's over two metres long) of guess the animal, as the book unfolds page by page. It's a smart take on a children's picture book in which you can discover over one hundred animals.

THE CITY OF ANIMALS

Emmanuelle Mardesson & Sarah Loulendo

This book takes readers to a utopian city full of animals. Each two-page spread features different neighbourhoods – the library, the market, the bath and the funfair – at different times of day. The text is subtle and slightly mischievous, and uses animals like Dubengal the tiger, Nina the turtle and Kohl the gazelle to set the scene. The detailed images depict humorous situations acted out by a range of creatures. The City of Animals is an amusing bestiary and a poetic journey through an imaginary city that children will love.

THE MOUNTAIN

Anne-Hélène Dubray

This mountain is on every double page – immutable element of the picture book, it becomes the witness of the passage of time. It looks majestic, surrounded by luxuriant nature and by diplodocus, stegosaurus and pterosaurs. Over the pages, landscape evolves. Soon the dinosaurs disappear; the megafauna reigns and great apes stand up on their two legs. Then the men arrive: some hunt the mammoth, some fish in the river. A civilisation is created in the very first city. Nowadays, it is in the cinema that we will see the dinosaurs...

THE TRICKSTERS

Anne-Hélène Dubray

What's that slipping through the trees? Is it a snake? No, it's a jaguar's tail! What's that at the top of the palm tree? Is it a toucan's beak? No, it's a rhinoceros's horn! Appearances can be deceiving. In this book, ten mischievous animals, hidden behind leaves and branches (and flaps), are all pretending to be something they're not. This book, featuring a poetic text, is a surprisingly fun way of playing with animals.

THE ORCHESTRA

Chloé Perarnau

The big concert is in one week's time but all the musicians have gone on holiday. The conductor and his faithful assistant travel the world to find them – the violinists in Tokyo, the harp player in Porto, the trumpet players in Rio and the flautists in Abidjan. However, everywhere they go, the streets are busy. It's not easy to find what they're looking for! The Orchestra is both a narrative – with text, a plot and characters – and a treasure hunt, where children must look closely at each image.

MOTHER FOX

Amandine Momencau

At the edge of the forest, Mother Fox looks at its young frolicking in the snow. But the little ones walk a little too far from the earth... And in an instant, Mother Fox loses sight of them! She goes to look after them, but there are so many trees, and the snow is so deep... Finding them won't be a piece of cake. A tender and poetic stroll, a real hide and seek through the snowy forest (for the reader, as for Mother Fox), in dainty paper cuts. The fine and delicate paper cuts make the forest even more real.

NEW YORK DAYS & NIGHTS

Aurélien Pollet & Vincent Bergier

Ready for take-off? We go to... New York City! An incredible and wonderful city, especially at night when everything becomes possible: a rocket taking off, a superhero flying over skyscrapers, King Kong, Superman or Dark Vador wandering the avenues, a flying saucer landing... If you want to recover the reassuring day light, simply raise the blue layer that covers the images. What we took for a flying saucer turns out to be the Guggenheim Museum!

THE INCREDIBLE ZAPATO FAMILY

Julie Brouant

This little girl really does have an incredible family. They all work in the circus, showing off their unique talents. Her brother is a talented juggler – just move the image to see the balls sail through the air. Her sister uses the ribbons and her mother performs on a balance board. But the little girl never succeeds at anything. Fortunately, her mother reminds her that she is good at one thing: making people laugh. So she decides to be a clown. This magical book features kinegrams: by moving the overlay, the images come to life, as if by magic.

A PICTURE BOOK OF ANIMALS

Camille Louzon

Whether animals live in jungles or in burrows, they all have secrets. This book reveals these mysteries through short haikus or colourful, Surrealist-inspired illustrations. Some animals are endearing: “Cuddles and caresses, snakes need tenderness”. Others are more adventurous: “Whether standing on the left or right leg, pink flamingos are acrobats.” Camille Louzon gives each animal its own personality, making it friendly, funny or endearing. This bestiary features a crazy gallery of around 20 animals.

IN THE BOX

Liuna Virardi

It is always tempting to open a box and discover what is inside. What can be found in a first-aid box, for example? A syringe, plasters, tweezers, a little pair of scissors... And what treasures does a make-up box contain? And an artist's satchel? A picnic basket? A toolbox? A beach-bag? A toybox? Or even a pizza box? A wonderful inventory with stylised and colourful illustrations by the talented Liuna Virardi. Pages to lift up, just like opening a box, to discover what is inside.

THE WOLF'S HOLIDAYS

Yen-Lu Chen-Abenia & Mathilde Bel

The wolf is getting ready for his holidays. His suitcase is empty, he needs to pack and make sure he doesn't forget anything; he takes his swim shorts off the washing line, a shirt from his chest of drawers, his toiletries bag from the bathroom... He also needs some boots, coloured pencils for the journey and, of course, his beloved toy sheep. Now the suitcase is full, he can go on holiday! A clever board book based on the same concept as The Hungry Wolf; detachable pieces on each page that the child places in a space waiting to be filled up.

THE HUNGRY WOLF

Yen-Lu Chen-Abenia & Mathilde Bel

Rumble, rumble goes the wolf's big tummy... it's completely empty! He needs to fill his belly up... So, he finds a big mushroom on a kitchen countertop, a slice of watermelon on a picnic tablecloth, a blueberry tart on a table in a tearoom... On each page, the child can remove the detachable object and stick it (using the velcro on the back) inside the wolf's stomach. By the end of the story, the wolf's tummy is full of yummy things. And he's not hungry anymore! A fun and original board book to be enjoyed over and over again.

WHERE IS MONA GOING?

Jérôme Ruillier

An allegory of the journey through childhood, in which a child shapes himself. The path veers off from the main road, leading us into some woods, that are a little bit scary, before continuing along the riverbanks. The next part of the journey is an invitation to explore, to follow the butterflies or skip from here to there. Then come the rocks to climb... When suddenly, a majestic summit covered in snow towers above. And upon reaching the top, comes the discovery that, in the distance, many more mountains remain to be conquered.

I'LL GO AND SEE

Emmanuelle Bastien

I'll go and see... the seaside, the mist, the great ocean, the eternal snows, the desert, an unknown island, a secret cave, the forest, space... and then I'll rest, until tomorrow... Playing with solid colours and die cuts in the pages, this beautiful book and object embarks little ones on a journey through a succession of landscapes : the mountain, a sand dune, the forest, a lunar landscape. With a pair of magic scissors and poetic simplicity, Emmanuelle Bastien brings the paper to life, carrying the reader from one end of the world to the other.

Emmanuelle Bastien

I like... peas, blueberries, soap bubbles, sparkling water or hiding myself... This funny list, that reminds the one of Jacques Prévert, is graphically translated in this book in a very playful manner: through some rounded holes of different sizes and coloured pages. Indeed, to represent the elements of this list, a graphic game between colours and sizes of the holes is enough: tiny black dots on a red page for peppercorns, a big yellow hole on a blue page for the sun, little white holes on a white page for the snow... Emmanuelle Bastien invites children to travel into an intensely creative interaction with the book itself.

LITTLE FELLA, HIS HOUSE AND RAIN AND RAIN

Emmanuelle Bastien

Reunited in a small box, eight engraved cards present a small fella, his house, the rain and a few objects such as a chair, a crown, a pair of boots and a pan. Based on these eight images the author has then imagined 10 visual short stories casting the little fella among these objects. The stories are made of 5 panels unfolding like an accordion. Without any text, it results a very original and beautiful book-object which lets a great room for children's imagination and creativity. It is a unique and very graphic art work.

MY NEIGHBOURHOOD

Judy Kaufmann

There is always something happening on my street. On my way home, I walk past the florist, the bookshop and the ice cream parlour... My Neighbourhood is a large accordion board book that the child can unfold and stand up like a little screen; on the front, the day, on the back, the night! On each page, a building full of life, with lots of little scenes to observe and things to name.

THE QUIRKY CIRCUS

Judy Kaufmann

Jugglers, acrobats, clowns, dancers, tightrope walkers, magicians... There's no stopping this happy troupe of animals! On the right-hand page, discover one of the 10 animals, all dressed up, mid-performance, and on the left, a little inventory of circus accessories and costumes to introduce children to new vocabulary. With a great deal of simplicity and elegance, The Quirky Circus showcases a whole cast of characters that will enchant young children.

GASTON L'ÉLÉPHANT CLOWN

DUOS OF ANIMALS

Emmanuelle Mardesson & Sarah Loulendo

Country billy-goat and mountain chamois, faithful dog and feral wolf, swift cat and fierce panther... This allcardboard book connects animals of the same family, relying on the differences of their domestic or wild characteristics. The face-to-face illustrations are built on mirror effect: the animals and the elements of the background put forward the similarities as much as the differences. Each creature is presented with great humour and finesse by a short definition.

TEN VEHICLES AND THEIR NEIGHBOURS

Cléa Dieudonné

TEN ANIMALS AND THEIR COUSINS

Cléa Dieudonné

This is a series of cardboard lift-the-flap books. The images are bold and interesting, playing on ideas and similarities. Ten objects are chosen to illustrate a theme – here, animals or vehicles. The left-hand page shows the vehicle, and the right-hand page shows where it is found (for example, the fire engine at the fire station and the airplane at the airport). Under the flap is another scene showing each vehicle's environment, and similar vehicles. This is a fun and original way of discovering around 50 vehicles and their relationships.

THE STRANGE

Jérôme Ruillier

A man with a bear face leaves his native country to try his luck in a foreign land, supposedly more prosperous. But he doesn't speak the language, and he's an undocumented immigrant there. He becomes what the locals call "a strange". Once out of the aircraft, he meets several people, who merely observe him – a neighbor, a bus passenger, a crow – or who get involved in his story. A splendid and absorbing polyphonic work that helps us understand the tragic fate of an illegal immigrant.

OFFSIDE

Mathieu Chiara

The author has come up with a wide range of characters, including prehistoric men, a referee, a lawnmower, homeless people, a prostitute, players, a coach and sports presenters, who all have something to do with football. These short, humorous sketches plunge readers into unexpected stories. Like a film, each scene leads to the next. With its captivating fineliner drawings, cutting humour and powerful plot, this funny and metaphysical take on football is a real treat.
